In the Spirit of Christian Faith and Fellowship

Build your house on the rock, come play in the sand!

Names have great power. Some hold special meanings and some come with expectations. This summer campers will look at how people confronted expectations, confounded others' assumptions, and forged new identities. Reflect on who they are as an individual and how they are connected to others. God knows us beyond any name we might be called and invites us into relationship. As we grow, learn, and discover our true self, we define our own name and find our place as a child of God.

What's in a Name?
